Guide to Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit 2004-05

by John Zebedee, Martin Ward and Sam Lister.

This ever popular guide provides full coverage of the updated housing benefit and council tax benefit schemes from April 2004, including the 2004 up-rating, highlighting all the variations between England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

You will be able to access information about:

- who is eligible HB and CTB and how entitlement is calculated
- the abolition of benefit periods – and how this affects councils and claimants
- how state pension credit affects HB and CTB assessments
- the new rules about people from the EU accession states
- the new rules for ending entitlement to benefit
- the changes in assessing overpayments and underlying entitlement
- the introduction of the local housing allowance scheme
- the new subsidy rules
- how much rent and service charges are eligible for HB
- how to deal with absences, moving home and HB on two homes
- the removal of the limits on council tax benefit.
