

0000 510 0017.

We can raise a written explanation for the original decision, but this is unfortunately not applicable to mandatory reconsiderations based on the response from the decision maker(s) assigned. Per the notification uploaded to the journal of the outcome, the next step would be to appeal to the Social Security and Child Support Tribunal.