

We have looked at the evidence used to make the decision and any new information you may have given us.

We have changed our original decision.

Our decision

The decision maker has looked at the evidence again and their decision is set out below.

As the decision regarding Benefit Cap has been changed, the Overpayment will be recalculated.