

FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL

SOCIAL SECURITY

Appellant:	Tribunal Ref: NI
Respondent:	Secretary of State for Work and Pension

DIRECTION NOTICE

1. The Respondent has made an informal application to remove and replace the Respondent's Response submission to this appeal.
2. Any application to remove and replace all or some of the pages (A-W) of the appeal Response must be made formally in writing setting out the grounds of the application and providing details of the proposed changes to be made. In which case the Appellant and her representative will be able to consent to the application or make their own representations before a decision is made on the application.
3. Alternatively, the Respondent could lodge a further submission correcting anything that they consider an error in the existing Response submission.
4. The Appellant and her representative have already commented on wording they consider to be inappropriate in the Response submission at pages M-N. This evidence has been added to the appeal bundle as further evidence.
5. The appeal will be listed for hearing unless either party makes a written application to delay doing so, which will be considered by the tribunal.

Any party is entitled to challenge any direction given by applying for another direction which amends, suspends or sets aside the first direction.

Signed:	Date: 1 April 2016
Issued to the parties on: 02.04.2016

If you contact us, use this reference:

Department
for Work &
Pensions

Personal Independence Payment
9,
Mail Handling Site B,
Wolverhampton,
WV99 1AG

www.gov.uk

Telephone: 0800 121 4433

Textphone: 0800 121 4493

24 April 2019

Personal Independence Payment

About your appeal

Dear

I'm writing to you about your appeal against the Personal Independence Payment decision dated 02 November 2018.

I've looked again at the facts and evidence we used to make the original decision. I've also considered the points you've raised and any new information provided.

After careful consideration of all the information, I've changed the original decision, your award will change and your appeal will not continue.

I've considered all the evidence about your conditions and how they affect you as identified in:

- the "How [your] disability affects you" form, and
- the extra information you gave us, and
- the information provided by the health professional consultation report.

I've decided you're still entitled to the Daily Living component of Personal Independence Payment at the Standard rate of £57.30 a week. The period of award is from 02 November 2018 to 14 August 2021 (both dates included).

I've decided you're entitled to the Mobility component of Personal Independence Payment at the Standard rate of £22.65 a week. The period of award is now from 02 November 2018 to 14 August 2021 (both dates included).

Personal Independence Payment is made up of two components, the Daily Living component and the Mobility component. Each component is comprised of two rates, Standard and