6. The absence abroad was initially connected with the death of a close relative. Regulation 11 of UC Regulations 2013 states that a temporary absence of up to one month is permitted but may be extended by a further month if the absence is in connection with the death of a close relative for whom the person or their partner was responsible. No evidence is provided that S [redacted] or S [redacted] were responsible for the deceased. Given that the deceased lived in [redacted] and the claimants resided in Great Britain, it is inherently improbable that they were responsible for the deceased.
