Personal Independence Payment

We have extended your PIP award

Dear Mr [REDACTED]

Your award of Personal Independence Payment (PIP) is due to be reviewed soon.

Because of the current coronavirus outbreak (COVID-19) we are extending PIP awards.

What this means for you

Your current PIP award has been extended to 13 November 2020. However, this may change if we are able to complete the review of your PIP award before this date.

We will continue to pay your PIP payments as normal in the meantime.

What to do now

If you have not received an 'Award Review - How your disability affects you' form you do not need to do anything or contact us about your PIP award. We will contact you again at a later date to review your award.

If we have recently sent you an 'Award Review - How your disability affects you' form you do not need to fill it in and return to us. We will contact you again when it is time to review your PIP.

Your PIP award has been extended.

We have many different ways we can communicate with you.

If you would like braille, British Sign Language, a hearing loop, translations, large print, audio or something else please tell us using the phone number at the top of this letter.
